Politics Plentiful.

Democrats Call A Primary.

Republicans Elect W. A. Blackburn Chairman.

And Name April 17 as the Day for the Committee to Nom- inate Candidates.

The Middle-of-the-road Populist Nominate a Ticket.

The Democratic county committee met pursuant to call Monday. After discussing the situation it was decided that inasmuch as a primary election had been called to nominate a candidate for the legislature it would best subserve the interest of all concerned to call a primary election for nominating the candidates for the county offices, and the committee voted unanimously for the primary.

Messrs. A. H. Cardin, W. H. Brown and Ben Rankin, a committee from the Populists, appeared before the committee and presented the following proposition, stating that the same had been passed at the meeting of the Populist committee then in session:

THE PROPOSITION.

Resolved, 1st. That we are anxious for all silver forces to get together and fight the common enemy, the goldbug, we make the silver Democrats the following proposition, to wit:

1st. We adopt a Union device, other than the rooster, or plow and hammer, and place all county candidates, including representative, under said device, and all State candidates under our respective devices—the rooster and plow and hammer—and we are to educate our people to first vote under the union device for all county candidates, then each party can cross over to their own party device and vote opposite each candidate's name, under their respective devices.

2nd. Then throw up, "heads and tails," as to who shall name the first candidate coming properly under the above proposition, from representative down to coroner, alternately.

If this proposition is agreed to by the silver Democrats, we further ask and insist that an answer to the above proposition be made in writing, signed by the chairman and Secretary of the silver Democratic committee at once, believing that, in our opinion, this is our only chance to concentrate all silver forces under a silver banner to down the goldbugs, and we appoint B. Rankin, W. H. Brown, and A. H. Cardin as a committee to wait upon the Democratic committee and ask their full and free consideration of the above resolutions.

Upon motion the Democratic committee voted unanimously not to accept the proposition, and the following answer, signed by the chairman and Secretary of the committee, was sent by a committee to the Populists:

We the Democratic committee having this day received a proposition from the Populists in reference to uniting on a county ticket, answer, that while we reciprocate the desire for uniting in the fight we deem said proposition unfair to us and therefore, with due respect for the party making it, we decline to accept the same.

The proposition made by the Populists was a surprise to every member of the committee, and various were the opinions expressed in reference to it. A member of the committee had not abandoned hope of a fusion, and rather expected a proposition that would, by its spirit, at least, indicate a desire on the part of the Populists for a fusion, and when the paper submitted demanded greater concessions than had yet been asked for by the Populists the surprise was manifest on all hands; the consensus of opinion was that the faction of the Populists submitting the proposition did not want, and had never wanted fusion on any grounds, and they simply made overtures in terms that they knew full well beforehand would be rejected. The situation was summed up this way. In the county there are from 1200 to 1350 Democrats, and from 140 to 175 Populists—Pettit, the candidate for Governor, only having polled 157 votes. To begin with, the Democrats had already practically conceded the State Senator to the Populists, and the Senator holds his office four years—twice as long as the Representative. Not satisfied with this, the 157 professing to want to make an equitable fusion demanded of the 1200 that they have an equal chance in a game of chance—"heads and tails"—for the Representative, and then one half of all the other offices; that is, that one man of every 26 of the Populists be given an office, and but one in every 240 Democrats be given an office. Not satisfied with this travesty on equity justice, and fairness, that 1200 Democrats surrender their device, while only 157 Populists should surrender, or in other words, for every Populist that surrendered his device, eight Democrats must surrender their device; that 1200 Democrats must vote for six Populists in order to get 157 Populists to vote for five Democrats. This was an "equity" and an "honorable fusion" at the Democratic committee had never dreamed of before.

"Gentlemen," said one member of the committee, "I must insist that this talk of fusion be stopped in the cause of humanity if for no other reason. I am satisfied from this proposition that the men who are managing the Populist affairs are losing sleep, lying awake at nights, and wearing out their constitutions trying to devise some means for an 'equitable' fusion. I am afraid that they will overwork themselves writing 'fair' propositions."

THE CALL

We, the Democratic Committee of Crittenden county, by virtue of the authority vested in us as such committee, hereby call a primary election to be held in Crittenden county on Saturday, April 3, 1897, between the hours of 8 a. m. and 4 p. m., for the purpose of nominating candidates for the county offices and a candidate for the Legislature to be voted for at the ensuing November election.

It is ordered that poll books be opened at all the voting precincts in said county on that day, and that the officers of said election deliver said poll books to the chairman of the county committee on Monday, April 5, 1897, at Marion, who, in connection with the county committee shall compare and count the votes polled and declare the persons receiving the highest number of votes for the county offices as nominees.

All persons who voted for Bryan, and all others who will agree to support the nominees of said primary election are entitled to vote therein.

REPUBLICAN MEETING.

Republican county committee convened Monday and was called to order by Chairman Vandell.

Mr. H. N. Lamb was elected temporary chairman and H. A. Haynes temporary secretary.

Mr. W. B. Vandell tendered his resignation as chairman of the county committee, and the same was accepted.

The committee then proceeded to the election of another chairman. The names of W. B. Vandell and W. A. Blackburn were placed in nomination.

Upon motion it was ordered that a secret ballot be taken, and slips of paper were given each committee man and upon these each man wrote the name of his choice for chairman. The result was for Vandell and for Blackburn, and the latter was declared elected.

Mr. Blackburn, in a brief and appropriate speech, accepted the trust. Messrs. H. N. Lamb and A. W. Blackburn were placed in nomination for secretary, and by a rising vote W. B. Vandell was elected.

The candidates for the various county offices were then given an opportunity to announce themselves, and quite a number made brief speeches, the candidates expressed themselves as being willing to leave their claims with the committee and to let the committee make the nominations. Upon motion it was unanimously agreed by the committee that the committee be called to meet in Marion on Saturday, April 17, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of making the nominations. After this the committee adjourned.

POPULIST MEETING.

The Populists had rather a stormy meeting. There were two factions—one desirous of accepting, in the main, the proposition made by the Democrats for fusion on the county ticket, and those who called themselves the middle of the road crowd. The latter carried the day, and after sending the proposition printed elsewhere to the Democrats, proceeded to nominate a county ticket with the following result:

County Judge—T. C. Campbell.
County Clerk—C. W. Fox.
Circuit Clerk—T. H. Roberts.
Sheriff—D. N. Riley.
School Superintendent—J. N. Tobery.

Jailer—John Polk.
Assessor—J. H. Todd.
Surveyor—J. H. Todd.
Coroner—Cub Vandell.
They called a convention to meet at Salem on March 30, to nominate a candidate for the legislature.

No action was taken in the senatorial race. Two Populist candidates for the senate—Thompson and McConnell—from Caldwell county were present and McConnell advised a fusion with the Democrats, and it is said that Thompson was also in favor of fusion. Neither took an active part in the meeting, but both were evidently more or less disappointed, because a fusion satisfactory all around could not be effected.

Messrs. Howland, Kinnin, and others wanted to fuse with the Democrats, and advocated the acceptance of the proposition made by the Democrats. Warm speeches were made by both sides, and for awhile the meeting was the liveliest place in town. Howland, strongly assisted by Kinnin, led the fusion crowd, while Cardin, Brown, Clark, and Rankin were the middle-of-the-road leaders.

ATTEMPTED TO KILL.

Will Dyer Shoots at the Man Who Accidentally Killed His Son.

The decision in the trial of Thos. Murphy, at Morganfield, on Wednesday last, for the murder of young Leslie Dyer at Caseyville last fall, was the cause of a deplorable occasion which came very near being a murder. Murphy, it will be remembered, a few months ago while calmly handling a pistol, shot and killed young Leslie Dyer, the son of U. S. Marshal Will Dyer, of Caseyville. Murphy's trial came up in circuit court Wednesday, and he was released with a fine of $50. Murphy accompanied by his sister returned upon the late O. V. train to their home near Caseyville that same evening. Mr. Dyer, father of the murdered boy, was on the train. Both parties were drinking to some degree. Just as the train was leaving Henderson, Dyer was sitting in the rear of the coach, arose and advancing to the front where young Murphy was seated with his sister, he drew a revolver from his pocket and placing the muzzle of the weapon a few feet from the back of Murphy, fired one shot. By some unexplainable cause, Murphy just as the shot was fired stooped over with his shoulders below the top of the back of the seat and as a consequence was unharmed. Through the interference of Wm. Besen, who was in the seat close by, and Miss Murphy, Dyer was prevented from firing more shots. Murphy remained crouched beneath his seat for several minutes, and it is thought that this action on his part, creating the impression in the mind of Dyer that his shot had taken effect was the cause of his life having been saved.—Uniontown Telegram.

CRIDER WINS THE POSTOFFICE PLUM

The End Reached on the Fifth Ballot after a Big Fight.

The Fight Appears to Have Been Be- tween Crider and Blackburn.

According to the agreement twenty-four men, the members of the Republican county committee for the four Marion voting precincts, convened at the court house Saturday afternoon at 1 o'clock for the purpose of nominating the candidate for the Marion post office, under the agreement signed by the five candidates, which agreement was published in the Press last week.

Joel P. Deboe was elected chairman of the meeting and A. Wilborn Secretary. After organizing the five men were invited to address the committee, and one by one the boys stated their case briefly, and then everybody retired from the room, except the committee, and the balloting commenced. Each man wrote the name of his choice upon a small strip of paper, the strips were collected in a hat, and counted.

A rule dropping the hindmost candidate after the third ballot was adopted. There were twenty-four committeemen, and thirteen votes were necessary for a choice. The five ballots were as follows:

Ballots.	1st.	2d.	3d.	4th.	5th
Blackburn,	9	8	9	9	10
Crider,	8	10	10	11	14
Haynes,	4	6	5	4
Hill,	2
Paris,	1

All morning the town presented somewhat the appearance of a regular field day in politics. All the candidates friends were at work with the various members of the committee, and the "pulling and hauling" was the prototype of a regular county or district convention.

Mr. Crider is one of Marion's best citizens, a fine business man, and will make a splendid postmaster.

NOT UNTIL JUNE.

Will Our Present P. M. Send in His Resignation.

"Are you going to send in your resignation," is a question that was hinted to the affable and industrious gentleman who has been postmaster general of the Marion post office for the past four years. With his usual promptness he replied:

"No sir, not until the first day of June; on that day I will make my resignation, and ask to have it take effect the first day of July. My four years will not be out until then. Now I can't tell you whether I will have my way about it or not; it may be that I will get my 'walking papers' before that time. No, sir, I will not undertake to say that I will be in here June 1, and if I am not, the resignation will not be needed."

Judge Hearin has made a good postmaster.

Dangers of the Grip.

The greatest danger of la grip is of its assuming pneumonia. If reasonable care is used, however, and Chamberlain's Cough Remedy taken, all danger will be avoided. Among the tens of thousands who have used this remedy for la grippe, we have yet to learn of a single case having resulted in pneumonia, which shows conclusively that this remedy is a certain preventive of that dread disease. It will effect a permanent cure in less than any other treatment. The 25 and 50c sizes at Orme's drug store.

JUDICIAL CALL.

At a meeting of the Democratic committee for the Fourth Judicial District of Kentucky, composed of Hopkins, Caldwell, Crittenden and Dickinson counties, held at Princeton, Ky., on the 3d of March, 1897, pursuant to a call made by the Chairman thereof the following action was taken for the purpose of nominating candidates for circuit judge and commonwealth's attorney in this judicial district a delegate convention is called to meet at Princeton, Ky., on Thursday, the 8th day of April 1897 at 11 o'clock a. m.

The delegates to said convention will be selected as follows. On Saturday, April 3, 1897, at 2 o'clock p. m. the voters of each voting precinct in each county of said district will meet at their respective voting places, and in any way they may see fit proceed to select one or more delegates to said county convention, and instruct them as to first and second choice.

In selecting said delegates they shall not be confined to individuals residing in said voting precinct or district, provided that all delegates shall have certified instructions as to first and second choice in candidates before the final convention.

It is further ordered that the delegates selected under the preceding provisions shall meet at their respective county seats on the following Monday, April 5, and select county delegates to the final convention at Princeton on April 8.

The voting district or precinct shall be the unit in said Princeton convention and the vote thereof shall be cast as a unit, the majority of the delegates therefrom controlling the same; provided, however, that the vote of each precinct shall be cast on balloting for the candidates for whom such precinct instructed at the meeting herein provided for.

Each voting district or precinct shall be entitled to one vote for each fifty votes and fraction of 25 or over cast for Bryan electors at November election 1896, in said voting district or precinct.

If any district at said election cast less than 25 votes it shall nevertheless be entitled to one vote.

If any precinct in this judicial district shall have been divided or may be divided before said precinct meetings are held, then such precinct meetings shall be held at the voting places, and each new precinct shall be entitled to one half of the vote of the old precinct, so that the total vote of the new precincts shall be the same that the old precinct would have been had there been no division of the same.

All persons who voted for Bryan electors at the November election, 1896, and all who will promise to support the nominees of said Princeton Convention, and persons who will be entitled to vote at the coming November election, though they may not now be entitled to do so, and who will promise to support the nominees of said convention, shall be entitled to vote at said precinct or district meeting.

Acothe "Widow Woman's Farm."

The Frankfort Capital, in commenting upon Inspector Leslie's "Widow woman's farm," at Eddyville, informs that official that it is not necessary to go to Eddyville to find the "widow woman's" vineyard in a decaying condition, and then proceeded to tell of the state house at Frankfort as follows:

"Approach it from the front, and you will have to wade through a pond at the gate. Go to the East gate and the rickety, creaking old scrap iron tied to a weight totters back and threatens to fall on you as you enter provided that you get hold of the gate that is in use. The other gate has given up the effort to live on credit and is closed like the German National bank, without a prospect of ever opening again. But go to the North entrance, where two staggering stone columns are trying to keep a big rotten stone cap from falling on you, and climb up the stone pile, digging your toes and fingers in the rocks where once were the steep steps. Follow this crumbling wall on around to the West side, and view with pride the artistic abandon of the straggled and dilapidated wall.

"DAVE AND HARRY."

The Two Clerks Will Be Candidates Before their Respective Parties for Re-election.

Tuesday after the political storm of Monday had cleared away somewhat, people began wondering who were going to be candidates, and while nearly every office was discussed in connection with from three to a dozen names, the two clerkships seem to associate themselves with the names of the two gentlemen now serving the people.

"Will Dave and Harry be candidates for re-election?" is a question that has probably been asked a thousand times, on as many different occasions, in the past few months.

To satisfy our readers on this point, we dropped in on these two genial gentlemen of pen and record Tuesday Will you be a candidate for re-election to the county clerkship? was the question Mr. Woods was asked to answer.

"Yes, sir," was his reply, and continuing he said: "You may say as much to the people. I appreciate as much as man can the support my friends have given me in the past, and I have earnestly endeavored to show my appreciation not only by words, but by a faithful, honest and conscientious discharge of duty. It has been my highest ambition to measure up to every responsibility the office places upon me, and how near I have come to doing this the people themselves must say. I shall be glad to serve them again, and if they still think me worthy I will appreciate their support, and in the future, as in the past, if re-elected my time and energies will be devoted to the service of the people. My candidacy is subject to the action of the primary election April 3."

Mr. H. A. Haynes, the efficient circuit clerk, responded in the affirmative when asked if he would be a candidate for re-election.

"I will," he said, "I have endeavored to make a faithful, efficient officer, and of course I am gratified to have assurances from a great many people that I have measurably well succeeded. I have endeavored to keep the business of the office in the very best shape, sparing no pains or labor to achieve this end. In doing this, I am only discharging my plain duty. I greatly appreciate the kindness the people have already shown me, and have endeavored to repay them as far as in my power by faithful service, but beyond that I shall always owe a debt of gratitude to the people of Crittenden. I promise them if re-elected the same efforts to be efficient and faithful as in the past, and their interests shall be guarded in this office as far as it is in my power to guard them. In soliciting their votes again I ask them to judge of my future by my past, and if they feel that I merit their support again, no man can appreciate it more."

To the Voters of Caldwell County.

As it will be impossible for me to see all the voters of the county before the joint-primary, I take this method of announcing my candidacy for Representative of Caldwell county in the next General Assembly of Kentucky, subject to the action of the Joint-Primary to be held Saturday, April 3, 1897. I am, and always have been a Democrat in the full sense of the term, and am in favor of the Free Coinage of Silver at the ratio of 16 to 1. I predicted four years ago that the present state of affairs would exist at the present time, and will continue to grow worse until Bi-metalists have control of the affairs of this government again. All well informed people know that for several years all legislation has been in favor of Trusts and Monopolies, and that the interests of the Tax-burdened Farmers have been unscrupulously ignored by our Representatives in the Legislature and Congress. And, as the farmers are in the majority, it seems to me as if it were time for them to elect representatives who will look after their interests instead of the interests of Lawyers and Coupon Clippers, who have controlled the affairs of government so long. In stead of high tariff and protection for immense factories, mines, corporations, trusts, combines, monopolies, etc., we need a reduction of taxation on farms and farming products, and this result cannot be arrived at so long as corporation lawyers, mine owners, bankers, etc., are elected to legislate for us, but who legislate only for the benefit of Lawyers, and Coupon Clippers.

Farmers have to pay a greater tax upon their possessions than do the owners of factories, Mines, Banks, etc., for what the farmers have in sight, and with no protection on his products, he is at the mercy of monopolies, trusts, etc., with their high tariff protection, thus causing him (the farmer) to pay two values for what he has to buy in machinery, clothing, etc., that he cannot produce at home, and to sell at half value the products of his

I was raised on a farm and have been a farmer (on a small scale) a great portion of my life, and have tried to keep myself informed upon all the important issues of the day, and have watched every act or vote of all our representatives in the Legislature and in Congress, ever since I was old enough to vote, and find that a majority of them have taken decided stands in favor of the Money Power, in opposition to the best interests of their constituents, and it does seem as if this state of affairs has lasted long enough. A great many Congressmen and Senators have been members of Trusts and Combines and have carried everything pretty much their own way which of course has been very detrimental to the interests of the burdened, taxridden farmers. ONE YEAR ONE DOLLAR

The international monetary conference bill became a law before president Cleveland went out. Now as a goldbug Democratic president signed the bill, let us hope that the energies of a Republican administration will be directed towards the accomplishment of the purposes intended. It is too serious a matter to be treated as a dead letter, and unless the Republicans show a sincere purpose to meet the spirit as well as the letter of the law, their name will be "Dennis" four years from now. The more astute leaders—those who have no direct mercenary personal interest to be advanced by the gold standard, with its blighting influences for the many and enriching proclivities for the few—will see this point. The course of the free silver people will, to no small extent, have its influence upon the administration's effort for an international conference. If the free silver forces remain intact, standing shield to shield in every fight, subverting other issues, and training their concentrated guns upon this one target, the crack of the musketry and the roar of the cannon, will be heard at the White House, and it will be regarded as significant; its influence will be potent for good. Ambitious man, unless stripped of some of the attributes of the human being; is not and can not be calous to the demands of any considerable number of his fellow pilgrims.

President McKinley is an ambitious man, well balanced in all forces that cement men together in a common brotherhood, and his sensibilities have not yet been dulled by the worshippers of mammon. He now stands between two forces, one arrogant and as powerful as the money God can create, it will follow him as persistently as night follows day. It will exhaust the field of its specious argument; it will tell him that it was by its grace that he was placed in the presidential chair; it will argue, it will solicit, it will coax, it will beg, it will demand without counterbalancing influences, the President will yield, and the virtue of an impartial, fair and sincere honest international conference will never be tested.

What of the other force? It is the free silver people. They have no personal hold upon him. They can not solicit, beg nor coax. The righteousness of their cause and their unselfish devotion to it, is the only shibboleth they have.

The Louisville Post, the original old he-goldbug bolter of the Kentucky press, is mean enough to say: "The address of Mr. McKinley in Washington today will be read with a distinct feeling of disappointment by the men who, abandoning their party, consented to the election of the Republican nominee."

Take your medicine, but in the name of common honesty take it like a man; do not go to making a wry face and contorting the muscles of the stomach at the first taste. Maj. McKinley's address is, in the main, in keeping with his utterances during the campaign, and it is amusing to behold these Pickwickian efforts of papers like the Post to justify their recent course by assuming that the address is otherwise. The best that the Courier-Journal can say is: "Of the good intentions of the new administration there can be no doubt." To dam the result of its work with faint praise is a queer thing for a self constituted saviour of the nation's honor to do. The Courier-Journal has played in many roles, but this is one of the most unexpected and unpardonable of all. For these two high cockalorum to do anything but stand by the new administration which they openly helped to inaugurate, claiming that it was the only course to maintain the honor of the country is unmanly, even from the standpoint of "free silver cranks," who are said to hold "honor" very lightly upon their hearts.

The Governor has issued his call convening the Legislature next Saturday. In the call he names forty-two subjects for legislation, including the election of a United States Senator, and about every thing else needed in the way of legislation, and some things not needed. He wants the State re-districted into new circuit districts, Senatorial and Legislative districts, the election laws revised, and penitentiary at Eddyville abandoned or provided with machinery, a house of reform established, school trustees elected by secret ballot, mob violence prevented, salaries curtailed, provision made for the floating debt, etc., etc. He has designated work sufficient for a regular term. Had he designated only the more important matters, those needing prompt attention, and not tangle the skein with so many threads, the chances for good results from the extra session would have been better. As it is, there are likely to be wrangles over the less essentials to consume the time.

Rev. Bogness commenced a series of meetings here last Sunday.

Prof. M. C. Wright began a three months school here last Monday.

J. E. Johnson has gone to Louisville this week for his spring goods.

Miss Venia Tolley has returned home after a three weeks visit among friends and relatives near Joy.

Rev. W. H. Stevens visited home Saturday. He tells us he will teach in Golconda this spring.

R. S. Paris, our poultry raiser, has just purchased a couple of fine chickens for which he paid $15; who can beat that these hard times.

FREDONIA.

Measles have nearly died out for want of material.

John H. Neel went to Princeton last Saturday.

We have a nice line of Spring goods.

Bugg & Loyd.

Albert Glass and wife, of Crittenden attended services at the C. P. church last Sunday.

The candidates are giving the voters a rest just now on account of the bad weather.

A large crowd went to Princeton Monday to hear the trial of Wiley Leeper, the supposed murderer of Tom White.

A great deal of tobacco was brought in last week to be shipped to Princeton, and a big lot received at Rice's factory.

J. W. Lucas went to Pembroke last week to see his daughter who was crippled by a rail road train; he returned Friday evening, and reported that she was still alive but very weak, and returned again Monday evening saying she was improving.

STONEWALL.

Look out for a wedding soon.

R. N. Thomason is on the mend.

An infant of Sol Hunt's died last Friday.

George Cruce is suffering with a broken arm.

R. W. Clark is making his home at Lee Vick's.

Doc Woodoll's child is very low and is probably dead at this writing.

Mr. Jayne, of Crayneville was here last week, looking for stock.

Singing at C. W. Andrews, last night at R. H. Hill's Sunday night.

Rev. E. B. Blackburn preached a splendid sermon at Piney creek Sunday.

George Scott, of Caldwell county, was visiting in this neighborhood recently.

Miss Linnie Ashley, of Livingston county, is visiting relatives in this section.

Several persons from this community will attend the Princeton circuit court this week.

MOUNDS.

Jim Draper has left us and gone to Illinois.

"Ant Em" Tracey is very low with the measles.

There is some talk of a big land deal in the near future, and now

"Brigham" goes a mournin'.

E. T. Robinson and W. T. Terry are our principal produce and stock dealers.

Unless all political parties hold early primaries the farmers will make a complete failure—all candidates.

Harlow Robinson has transed for Confidence, and if he knew where he could get her mate, Prosperity, he would start immediately for her.

G. K. Ford was in town a few days since and reported that his son Jim is rafting his cornstalks and will later on send them to Kansas for fence posts.

The measles made their appearance among us recently. About the first place they struck was Newt Bracey's and they found so many more children than there were measles that they gave it up as a bad job and would not take Rev. Millican and W. G. Condit's family.

Mounds is situated about half way between Marion and Fords Ferry. It is a growing village and consists of one store of general merchandise, a post office, school house, blacksmith shop, grist mill and corn crusher. W. T. Terry will soon have his tin and repair shop on Main street ready for business. A big effort will be made to get M. T. Worley to handle factory, and Henry Belt to put in a broom plant, in our village. We have the farms and farmers to back a good sized town.

ROSEDALE.

Prayer meeting at Blomcom Rose every Wednesday night.

Rev. H. Murphy filled his appointment at Oakland on Sunday last.

Messrs. Dan and Sam Matthews of Frances were visiting friends here last week.

We had quite an interesting singing at Mrs. Hellen Champion's last Sunday evening. Miss Ellen Henson of Hurricane was organist.

Mr. J. A. Wheeler, our candidate for Assessor, is out among the people. Mr. Wheeler is an all around good fellow, and we most certainly wish him success.

Married, on the 24th of February at the residence of the bride's father, Mr. Jonathan Belt, Mr. S. A. Wheeler to Miss Martha Belt, Rev. Bebout, in his concise, pleasant way officiating. Quite a crowd was present and it was made a pleasant time for all, and it was one of the prettiest home weddings the writer ever witnessed.

The bride was a beautiful and lovely young lady and possesses all the necessary qualities to make her home happy.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer and one of the best citizens in this part of the county. We wish them prosperity and a happy life.

REPTON.

The feather men are still at Repton. Measles are raging in this section.

Mr. Sullivan's youngest daughter also has the measles.

Mr. Kelley is still here with his photograph gallery.

Mr. C. R. Newcom will move to his new residence this week.

Mr. Herman Shuttlesworth made his weekly trip to Easley's Sunday.

There will be preaching at this place the third Saturday and Sunday.

Born to the wife of Will Thurman, March 2d, a seven and a half lb. boy.

Mr. E. C. Moore and Mr. Vick have just received a new saw mill and will be ready for work in a short time. Tom Roberts is all smiles on account of a fine boy at his house. Like old Father Abraham, Tom now has a son in his old age.

Mr. J. K. Beard, of Shady Grove, has been very ill with measles at this place but is recovering, and returned to his home Monday.

EMMAUS.

We still bid defiance to the measles epidemic.

John Wring, of Hurricane, is here visiting his parents.

Bart Brown, of Salem, is in our midst, mixing with friends.

Dr. Bateman, of Lola, was to see a patient in this part Sunday.

Robt Davis and wife, of Princeton, was visiting relatives and friends here Saturday and Sunday.

If you want to locate in business come to Crayneville.

Several attended circuit court at Princeton Monday and several attended county court at Marion.

Please come in and settle your account with us. J. P. Deboe & Co. Deboe & Co., will have a lot of seed potatoes in a few days.

James Deboe, of St. Joseph, La., has been visiting relatives here for the last few days. He returned home Tuesday via Clinton, Ky., where he will be married to Miss Roy Egber. God bless them with a happy and prosperous life. Ah Deb e accompanied them home and will make his future home in St. Joseph.

GOING SPRING.

Health good in this section.

Miss Catharine Mott visited her sister, Mrs. Mallie Hughes, recently. Mrs. Frank Fritts visited in the Chapel Hill section last week.

Mrs. Liza Hodge, of Marion, visited Mrs. Maggie Ford last week.

Miss Alice Fritts will commence her school at Caldwell Springs the 15th of this month.

Mr. John Fritts and wife visited friends in this neighborhood last Sunday.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Those good people tell me, sir, that you have been fighting imaginary "persecutors" ever since you have been in that community, and because nobody would condemn to notice you, it galled you to desperation and this is your religious war that you would have people believe was raging with such fury down there. The white capping which you got mixed up in at Lebanon; you would have the public believe that this was the result of one of your terrible "religious wars." Why, my dear sir, that was strictly an individual affair, and was not inspired by hatred or ill will towards any denomination, and no one knows this better than you. In fact I learn that there is not the least evidence that the white caps were from Dycusburg or even from that community. I tell you, sir, that there is no broader minded, more liberal, more tolerant people on earth. Why, sir, Baptists, Catholics, Presbyterians, Methodists, and Campbellites have dwelt together there in peace, harm my and brotherly love for fifty years; and you, sir, are the first man to ever slander them by accusing them of persecution. You, rolling your watery eyes to heaven and shouting "persecuted," while striving to steal, by means of malicious misstatements, the good name of honest people; trying to prove yourself an "honorable christian gentleman," by the infamous means which you have adopted, shouting "persecuted! persecuted!" Who is persecuting you? Don't you know that all of this damaging evidence that has been made against you was made by the very best Baptist people in the country? Baptist persecuting Baptist! "As we Baptists have always been persecuted."

But, my brother, don't you see how silly it is for you to pursue this course? You can't expect intelligent people to believe any such "stuff." So take my advice, my good man, and drop this course. This is strictly your case and you can not make the Baptist church a party to the suit.

Now I want to call your attention to another little "mistake" which you have made. I notice that you say,

"It is a consolation to me to know that I have the support of the leading people of these churches as well as in the community." Well, thank goodness! I have at last discovered some quality which you possess which would commend the admiration of even your "persecutors,"—your most wonderful "Gall."

Now, my little man, I have taken the trouble to go down and investigate this matter, and I tell you, sir, that outside of the few members of your church there, that by actual count 99.78 per cent of the good people of that community do not believe that you possess, in a sufficient degree, those admirable qualities that you have tried to make the people believe that you have been proven to possess.

And then, again, brother, didn't you recently visit one of the oldest and strongest Baptist churches in this county and offer to preach for them for $1.00 per month? Now be kind enough to tell us their estimate of you! And still another little matter, brother, I want to ask you about. I notice that the Deacons and Clerk of Piney Creek church have come forward and furnished you with a "whereas," stating that you have never been excluded from said church, and that you are a member really "in good standing."

Now, I wish you would have those good brethren to carefully examine the records of said church and to state how many times, and for what sins or sinners you were excluded? This question might be asked them on cross-examination.

Now, my dear brother, as I have already wasted more time on you than I usually waste on such matters, allow me to say, in conclusion, that I am still trying awful hard to have that aforesaid same good opinion of you, and I beg you to believe, that even if I have at times used some pretty strong and plain language that it was done only to make my ideas more clear to you, so that you could better understand your case, and that it was for your interest; and may I hope that in such kind spirit it will be received.

Affec. Ionately,
O. T. Justice.

Can't Eat

This is the complaint of thousands at this season. They have no appetite; food does not relish. They need the toning up of the stomach and digestive organs, which a course of Hood's Sarsaparilla will give them. It also purifies and enriches the blood, cures that distress after eating and internal misery often a dyspeptic can know, creates an appetite, overcomes that tired feeling and builds up and sustains the whole physical system. It so promptly and efficiently relieves dyspeptic symptoms and cures nervous headaches, that it seems to have almost "a magic touch."

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the best—in fact the One True Blood Purifier. It is the best after-dinner pills, aid digestion. 25c.

Here is the kind of obituary that a Georgia editor puts up for a man:
"Poor Jim Brown swung his earthly garments on a limb and swam the river yesterday. He did not stand back because the water was cold, but plunged right in and struck out for the other shore and methinks angels smiling. Jim was a poor man but had his subscription to his home paper paid up and got there in first class shape.

Mr. W. F. Oliver announces his candidate for Assessor. He is one of the leading citizens of the Dycusburg section, and a man thoroughly competent for the office. A staunch Democrat, as indicated by his card in this paper some weeks ago. He is an all-around good man, and a representative citizen of the county. If nominated he would make a good race,
and if elected, he would make a good Assessor.

Mr. John T. Foley recently took the civil service examination, and got a grade of 91 per cent. This is a splendid showing. He has also received an appointment as postal clerk. Some weeks ago he was disabled by the falling of a horse he was riding, and a broken arm and dislocated shoulder has kept him at home. John is a bright young man and we hope that he will find service for Uncle Sam both pleasant and remunerative.

Mr. John T. Pickens announces his candidate for Sheriff in this issue. He is so well known to the people that he needs no introduction. As deputy sheriff he has proven his fitness in every way for the office as Sheriff, and his firm but pleasant, courteous way of doing business has made him a deservedly popular man with the people of Crittenden. He is a good man in every respect, and if his party gives him the nomination it is needless to say that he will make a strong race.

gerous, but very painful.

Mr. W. C. L. Moore, one of the old land marks of the county died at his home in the Mattoon neighborhood Monday, after a long illness.
The interment took place at Mt. Zion yesterday. Mr. Moore was 74 years old, and has been a resident of this county many years. He has reared a large family and was a man tenderly devoted to his children.

Mr. J. Bell Kevil has a card announcing his candidacy for re-election to the county attorneyship. No man has been more solicitous about doing his whole duty than Bell Kevil, since he entered upon the work of the office; and as he becomes more thoroughly acquainted with the work, he becomes better fitted. His ambition is to do exactly the right thing, and all of his energies will be bent in that direction, and he is a man that will be satisfied with nothing short of that. He will appreciate an endorsement at the hands of the people.

We announce Mr. A. S. Hard as a candidate for re-election to the office of Jailor. He has served three years, and his service has been both faithful and efficient. Under his supervision the public property has been well cared for; in fact he has taken more than ordinary pains in preserving and keeping the property under his care.
He has been prompt and dutiful in all the work that falls to a jailor. The county has had no better jailor, nor one that has been more watchful and courteous all along the line.

Mrs. Kitty Heath, wife of Robert Heath, one of the oldest and best citizens of the Weston neighborhood,
died at her home Tuesday afternoon.
She had been an invalid for many years, being afflicted with a spinal disease, which rendered her unable to leave her room. Friday morning Mrs.
Heath was 70 years old. Her maiden name was Baker; her family came to Kentucky from North Carolina in the early part of the century, settling in Hopkins county.

The burial took place at Mt. Zion church cemetery Friday morning.

Mr. J. N. Clark has disposed of his interest in the Marion Roller Mills, and has retired from the milling business. He has been connected with the mill several years, and under his wise management as well as his fair dealing with, and courteous treatment of the people, a fine business has been built up, and the firm has grown to be one of the most popular milling firms in Southern Kentucky; the product of this mill is especially popular over this county, and the business methods of Mr. Clark has had much to do with the firm's establishment of the good reputation of the mill. John N. Clark is a good business man and we are glad to say that his retiring from the firm does not mean that he contemplates leaving Marion, as he is one of the best and most enterprising citizens we have.

SANE OR INSANE

Is the Question a Jury is Asked to Settle About Mrs. Boaz.

Marion has been in the midst of another big sensation since Monday, and it is the biggest one that has set all tongues wagging in Marion in many a day.

The court, the lawyers and a jury are busy inquiring into the condition of Mrs. E. M. Boaz's mind, and the public is just as busy listening to the proceedings.

Last week Mr. John D. Boaz had the papers necessary for the investigation issued, and on Monday the case was called and postponed until Tuesday, when court convened, a jury was summoned to hear the testimony and return a verdict upon the question of the soundness or unsoundness of Mrs. Boaz's mind. Tuesday and Wednesday have been consumed in the trial and the case is not likely to reach the jury before Friday. John Boaz, husband of the woman, was the first witness examined. Among the first things he said after going on the stand was:

"I believe my wife's mind is badly deranged." He then proceeded to detail the various incidents that caused him to arrive at that conclusion,
and before he left the stand the family skeleton was pulled from the closet.
Other witnesses were introduced, some stating that, basing their opinion upon certain matters that had been stated, and that had been brought out on a trial some weeks ago, they believed that no sane woman could have taken the position, in those matters,
the defendant did.

Yesterday Mrs. Boaz was on the witness stand, and her testimony and bearing showed that there was a wide breach between herself and husband, and that their relations are and have been for some time anything but pleasant.

Mrs. Boaz is a woman of large property, she is the daughter of the late W. C. Garman, who died one of the wealthiest citizens of Southern Kentucky. She is a half sister to Mr.
W. G. Garman, one of the best citizens of Marion, and he, as well as her other relatives, are standing by her in this fight.

John T. Pickens Announces for Sheriff.

TO THE PEOPLE OF CRITTENDEN COUNTY:

I take this method of announcing my candidacy for Sheriff, subject to the action of the Republican party. I will appreciate your vote and influence, and if elected I will promise to be faithful and diligent as an official.

On account of illness I was unable to attend the committee meeting Monday, and now, as court is near at hand with the work incident thereto,
I may not be able to see all the com-

Obituary.

Little Bennett, infant son of Mr.
W. B. and Mrs. Lizzie Thomas, was born Dec. 34, 1896, and on February 25 the death angel came and took from them their darling babe.

Little Bennett's stay on earth was short; he was a beautiful child, and the pride of the home. We know it is sad to no more see those bright eyes, and to know that the sweet baby voice is forever hushed. But weep not fond parents, for you only have another darling angel in Heaven, waiting your coming. God giveth and taketh away, and all the dearest ties of life must sooner or later be broken and some sadness enter every heart.

Arise fond mother, dry those tearful eyes.
Look no longer downward in despair;
But upward lift thy gaze into the skies,
For lo, thy darling angel dwelleth
there.

Obituary.

Little Lyde, daughter of W. L. and Lula Staton, died at her home
January 2, 1897.

Little Lyde was 4 years, 4 months and 5 days old when God called her to her eternal home. He did not pluck the tender bud to wither and die but to bloom in heaven; while it is our loss we realize it is her gain, for she was one of the sweetest children I ever knew.

Dear parents, you have my heartfelt sympathy, and remember there is One who can bind up all broken hearts if you will only trust Him.

A loved one from us is gone,
A voice we love is still;
A place is vacant in our home
Which never can be filled.

So we laid our darling to rest,
Till a glorious morn shall rise,
Tearing away the shadows,
Unsealing those beautiful eyes.

Yes, little Lyde, I know you are at rest,
On earth I will see you no more.
But God helping me, I'll meet you my darling.
Where parting will be no more.

Written by her friend,
Lillie Franklin.

AN OPEN LETTER.

Marcy 1, 1897.

MY DEAR BROTHER FOX:

I have just read your very flattering testimonial from Dycusburg Baptist church and the Hebron Baptist church, in which they say many very bright and commendable things of you, such as "honorable christian gentleman," etc. Now, brother Henry I have tried awful hard to have this same good opinion of you that those excellent people have of you, and have anxiously watched and waited for you to vindicate yourself of the many and terrible accusations that have been made against you, and I rejoiced when you at last showed a desire to attempt it. But, brother, haven't you submitted some evidence in this case which was absolutely unnecessary? hasn't it already been admitted that these two little churches—strange though it be—had this very exalted opinion of you? Certainly they have or they would not have employed you to preach for them. This fact alone was sufficient evidence that you stood "way up in G" with at least two churches in all this country, and it was unnecessary for you to have abused such charming words as "gentleman," "honorable," "christian," etc. And just think, one of these churches elected you pastor for life! Oh, what a compliment! how nice. Why of course every one knew and admitted that they thought you were a christian, "a peach," a leader but little lower than an angel.

But my dear brother Henry Bedford, while no one calls in question the honesty, the sincerity, the veracity of those two able bodied and intelligent witnesses, nevertheless I must confess that I am deeply disappointed in the defence that you have made. I really expected, brother, that you would submit equally as flattering testimonials from all of the Baptist churches at which you had served as pastor, and that then you would overwhelm your persecutors with a testimonial in which those beautiful words—whose meaning you are striving so hard to learn—"Christian," "honorable," "gentleman," etc., were abundantly used, and that a testimonial would bear the signature of at least ONE well known Baptist minister. But alas! I was disappointed; perhaps you didn't think of this.

But I warn you, my brother, that if you fail to submit some of the evidence that is demanded that you will surely lose your case, and as I feel a very deep interest in you and would be very glad to see you emerge from this matter with—feathers and wings—a complete angel, so I hope that you will permit me to "confidentially" suggest a course for you to pursue which if you will faithfully follow, I have no doubt will establish you a Paragon of virtue, morality, christianity, etc.

First, I would suggest that you carefully copy that excellent certificate given you by the Baptist church at Dycusburg, and then get your gun (as I am informed that on that calm, bright Saturday noon that the said church unanimously adopted that excellent "whereas and resolve," that you marched into that church—the house of God—a regular walking arsenal, with a horse pistol and double back action muzzle loading shotgun. So brother get your gun and go down to Dyer Hill church, where you once served as pastor and have that church have this church to certify that you are a "christian," "of good character," "a gentleman," etc. I am very sure to "whereas and resolve" in your favor, just as the Dycusburg church has done. And then you go to Deer Creek church, another church you served in the capacity of pastor, and you can have that church to do likewise, and then after fully satisfying yourself of your ability as a marksman go over to Mint Springs church, another church whose pulpit you once attempted to fill and you can easily that brother W. and brother S.—will gladly rally to your defence. And then you go to Blooming Grove church, and to Dunn Spring church, and it may be that the good people there will give you some valuable evidence.

And then, after carefully reloading your fire arms, you can proceed to Cookeville church, still another church whose pulpit you filled, and I know the good people there will help you prove your right to a pair of white wings. I suggest that you get brother S. at this place to assist you. Now brother, you know it is currently reported that at some of the above churches at which you were pastor that you were unceremoniously discharged because "having watched his walk," and "noted his conversation," they were not satisfied with you. So brother I would advise you to have the Cookeville church to "whereas and resolve" on the matter.

Second. And then, after having armed yourself with all of this pleasing evidence, I would suggest that you again reload your guns and visit all of the Baptist ministers of this vicinity with whom you are acquainted and who are also acquainted with you—and you have them, or as many as will, perhaps among all your acquaintances you can find at least ONE well known minister who will sign a certificate for you in which those words, "christian," "gentleman," "honorable," etc., appears.

Third. Then I would suggest that the testimony of the members of the Board of Home Missions of the Baptist church would be valuable evidence for you. I think that you can find some of the members of the board in Marion. Now my dear brother, I have gone to considerable trouble to give you these "pointers," so that if you really wanted to attempt to prove yourself to be all that the Hebron and Dycusburg churches believe you to be, that you would know what kind of evidence would be admissible in this case.

Now you know, brother, that I have not been very exacting of you, or asked anything unreasonable. I have simply referred you to five churches, at all of which you have served as pastor; to any of the Baptist ministers of this vicinity, all of whom know you; to the Board of Home Missions, all of whom know you. Now this seems to be making it very easy for you. If you can't get the desired evidence from the good people who know you, who then do you suppose is qualified to testify in this case? Surely, my good man, as you have unwittingly rushed into this case you want to make at least some pretense of a fight. But, brother, the manner in which you are dodging the issue you really deserve to be vindicated.

I repeat, brother, that I feel a deep interest in you, and am trying awful hard to have the same good opinion of you that your two churches have. But brother, this matter can't possibly be decided in your favor unless you submit this evidence.

You try to arouse sympathy for yourself and to enlist the interest and sympathy of the Baptist church in general, by crying "persecution." I happen to be acquainted in that community, my brother, and know those people better than you do, and I tell you there is no religious war, nor never has there been any at Dycusburg.

Sick poison is a poison which will make you sick. It comes from the stomach; the stomach makes it out of undigested food.

The blood gets it and taints the whole body with it. That's the way of it.

The way to be rid of it is to look after the digestion.

If your food is all properly digested, there will be none left in the stomach to make sick poison out of it.

If your stomach is too weak to see to this properly by itself, help it on with a few doses of Shaker Digestive Cordial.

That's the cure of it. Shaker Digestive Cordial is a delicious, healthful, tonic cordial, made of pure medicinal plants, herbs, and wine.

It positively cures indigestion and prevents the formation of sick poison.

All druggists. Trial bottles 10c.

From Cripple Creek

After the big fire in Cripple Creek I took a very severe cold, and tried many remedies without help, the cold only becoming more settled. After using three small bottles of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, both the cough and cold left me, and in this high altitude it takes a meritorious cough remedy to do any good.—G. B.
